

Aging Connections

Community Benefits

Connecting You to Trusted Resources for Aging Well

What is Aging Connections?

"Achieving together....What cannot be done alone."

Aging Connections is a non-profit group that connects people and organizations. We offer quality educational programs and community resources to support our aging population. Businesses can connect and share their services with those who need professional resources. By working together, we help each other, and our communities thrive. Join us in making a positive impact!

Why use AC?

- We're a local nonprofit dedicated to supporting the aging population.
- We bring together trusted professionals who serve with compassion, experience, and heart.
- We believe in community collaboration to help people age with dignity, knowledge, and support.

What We Offer The Community

Access to a Trusted Directory

Visit our website at www.agingconnections.org to explore a searchable list of vetted professionals and services in our region, everything from home care and housing to legal, financial, and wellness support.

Attend Our Free Resource Fairs

We host seasonal Community Resource Fairs filled with local experts, senior service providers, and wellness organizations. These events are open to the public and a great way to ask questions, pick up materials, and connect with local support, all in one place.

Stay Informed

Follow our Facebook page to find helpful articles, community event announcements, and aging-related updates. We share resources from our members and highlight programs that benefit older adults, caregivers, and families.

How Aging Connections Supports You

Navigate Aging with Confidence

Not sure where to begin? We're a starting point you can trust. From home care to housing to legal and financial help, our directory and network make navigating aging services less overwhelming.

Connect with Local Professionals

Aging Connections links you with trusted service providers in your own community, people who understand local needs and care about long-term relationships.

Learn and Empower Yourself

Attend our educational sessions, resource fairs, and community events to gain knowledge, meet providers, and ask the questions you didn't even know you had.

Stay in the Know

Follow us on Facebook or sign up for updates to learn about upcoming events, featured services, and helpful tips on aging well.

Make Informed Decisions

With Aging Connections, you can compare providers, explore resources at your pace, and make confident, informed choices for yourself or someone you care for.

Don't Miss a Thing

Get the latest resources, event invitations, and wellness tips for aging adults and caregivers.

Sign up for the Aging Connections newsletter today!

Join at: www.agingconnections.org

Here's What Our Community Is Saying

"When my mom needed care, I didn't know where to begin. Aging Connections helped me find trusted options and gave me peace of mind."
~ Caregiver

"I didn't know where to start, but the Aging Connections website helped me find services I didn't even know existed."
~ Senior Citizen

"You don't have to figure it out alone. Aging Connections links you to trusted, local support."
~ Caregiver

Need help finding a resource or just don't know where to start? Reach out through our website or attend our next event, we're here for you.

www.agingconnections.org
info@agingconnections.org

